RISE UP and be a Mentor! Mentors are high school age role models with the desire to share their talents and love of theatre with younger students. Ideal Mentors are self-starters who possess a positive, helpful attitude, strong leadership qualities and are committed to executing their assigned role to the best of their ability. The Mentors will also be part of the show! After the younger students depart at 12:00pm, the Mentors will participate in a workshop-style experience with our talented staff to prepare their own skits that will be part of the Bound for Broadway Production. Daily rehearsals will be an hour and a half and include a lunch break (ending at 1:30pm). Mentoring not only looks great on a college application, it prepares you for future directing/theatre opportunities and builds positive leadership experience that is useful in college and beyond!

Applicants must be available from 9:00 am -1:30 pm from July 9 -July 20, Monday-Friday, and must be present at both performances of Bound for Broadway [Friday, July 20 (7:00pm) and Saturday, July 21 (7:00pm)]. Applicants must be available for all scheduled Academy and performance times and will be asked to participate in "Strike" on the afternoon of Sunday, July 22.

Mentors will also be required to participate in two of the following three events: walking in the Yorkville Fourth of July Parade on July 4 (8:00am-12:00pm), "Showstopper Car Wash" (at Wholesale Tire in Yorkville - June date TBD) and "Load in" on the afternoon of Sunday, July 8, 2017 at Waubensee Community College.

We couldn't run a successful Academy without the help of Mentors - Thank you for applying! Please submit applications to Jen Whittington at fc.theartsacademy@gmail.com, or you can fax your completed form to 630-553-9053 or mail it to P.O. Box 46, Yorkville, IL 60560.
